

The following work was carried out as member of 'Development Workshop' (previously Third World Research Group)

1. Survey of Traditional Houses. Lebanon. Aug. 1973.
2. 'The Problems and Potentials of the Indigenous Built Environment of a Developing Country - Oman.' (In field: September - November 1973) Report sponsored by the government of Oman. 1973-74.
3. 'The Upgrading and Extension of Nizwa and Buraimi Village Centres'. Preliminary Planning and Design Proposals for government of Oman. 1973-74.
4. 'Indigenous Building Techniques of Iran' (based on review of existing literature) May '74.
5. 'Ideas in Low-Cost Housing.' India Competition. Jan. '75.
6. 'Indigenous Building and the Third World.' Article in 'Architectural Design.' April '75.
7. 'Indigenous Building and Rapid Urbanisation- case study, Sallala, Oman.' Article in Architectural Association Quarterly. Summer. '75.
8. 'Mud-Brick, Vault and Dome Technology.' Article in 'Appropriate Technology' journal of the Intermediate Technology Development Group. Summer '75.
9. 'Indigenous Cooling Systems in the Middle-East'. Article in 'The Ecologist.' (forthcoming) 1975.